

Library celebrates Flag

Last month saw the 52nd anniversary of the adoption of Canada's flag, and Caledon Public Library celebrated the occasion at the Albion-Bolton branch. The evening included the launch of the latest book by Carolyn j. Morris of Beeton. It's entitled Happy Birthday Canada and is illustrated by Richard McNaughton.

Photos by Bill Rea

A 'DUCKY' TALK

August 5, 2015 · 0 Comments

Author Carolyn J. Morris of Beeton had a good crowd of children recently when she spoke at the Albion-Bolton branch of Caledon Public Library. She read from such of her books as Good Morning Railfence Bunch. She also brought a couple of props with her; five days old.

Photo by Bill Rea

Author Carolyn J. Morris of Beeton brought some helpers with her to the Caledon village branch Friday, namely these four chicks, who were only two days old. "This is one of my joys," she said, as she read from two of her books to her young audience.